

formed

Cyber Risk Management

Cyber Risk Management (CRM) is a platform whose goal is to be the GRC (governance, risk, compliance) market leader in professional/managed Services for cyber risk management via proven "partnering through acquisition" build and growth strategy. The first acquisition in the platform is Sunera, a leading provider of business and technology risk management and consulting services.

March 2014

Invested in

OneSource Virtual, a Workday partner, specializes in the deployment and delivery of the Workday platform to small- and medium-sized businesses while offering business process outsourcing services on one unified platform to companies of all sizes

February 2014

Made a follow-on investment

OneSource Virtual

A Workday partner, specializes in the deployment and delivery of the Workday platform to small- and medium-sized businesses while offering business process outsourcing services on one unified platform to companies of all sizes

July 2014

Through its portfolio company

Cyber Risk Management

ANRC, LLC

As the second addition to the platform. ANRC is a leading provider of Cyber Security training, consulting, and solutions to government institutions and other businesses

October 2014

Halyard is a private equity firm with over $600 million of capital under management focused on investing in Healthcare, Education, Information and Business Service companies. The firm specializes in middle-market leveraged buyouts, growth equity, and structured equity investments

Halyard Capital

600 Fifth Avenue, 17th Floor,
New York, NY 10020

Tel: (212) 554-2121 Fax: (212) 554-2120

www.halyard.com